

JOIN US, WE ARE RECRUITING

Saipem is one of the leading international engineering group providing a broad range of services in the oil and gas industry. To support our business need in the Croatia we are looking for Engineering Professionals to join our team in Rijeka/Croatia.

Several engineering positions are available:

MECHANICAL/CIVIL ENGINEER

Responsible for developing technical documentation related to Offshore Installation Engineering activities throughout the various phases of the project or during the bid stage.

Perform specialized engineering activities in support of project deliverables including calculation reports, design reports, specifications and procedures.

Work in specialized software packages for offshore installation engineering.

Project execution phase follow up on site or onboard installation vessel.

Completed study in Mechanical or Civil Engineering. No professional experience is required

NAVAL ARCHITECT

Standard Naval analysis (vessel stability, strength, hydrodynamics and seakeeping). Specific naval analysis for offshore structures/platforms installation (e.g. offshore Jacket launch and upending, lifting analysis, float-over operations).

Work in specialized software packages for offshore installation engineering.

Project execution phase follow up on site or onboard installation vessel.

Completed study in Naval architecture & Marine engineering. No professional experience is required.

Good knowledge of English language and advanced PC skills. Proactive approach and ability to work in a team. Flexibility and willing to travel abroad.

Please send your application with CV in English language through e-mail posao@saipem.com, June 25th latest.