

According to The Scientific Activity and Higher Education Act , Section 83 ( 11.) ,(NN 123/03, 198/03, 105/04, 174/04, 02/07, 46/07, 45/09, 63/11, 94/13, 139/13, 101/14), you must deliver your final paper / master thesis both in print and as a digital version to FAMENA. The full text of your final paper / master thesis should be published in the FAMENA repository and University of Zagreb repository no later than a week following the defence.

Student's name and surname: _____

Please check the appropriate box:

- Full text of the  final paper /  master thesis will be available to the public in the FAMENA repository and FAMENA web pages no later than a month following the defence.

- Full text of the  final paper /  master thesis will be available to the public in the FAMENA repository and FAMENA web pages no later than a month following the defence.

This final paper / master thesis is entirely or partly subject to the Contract of secrecy:

Ur. Br.: _____; Class: _____ and therefore the public publishing is being postponed in accordance to the contract. The mentor must mark and protect parts of the final paper / master thesis which cannot be published.

If a contract does not exist but the results of the conducted research are subject to further use, postponing the publishing of full text of the final paper / master thesis cannot be longer than 2 years.

The final paper / master thesis can be published on the following date:

With this statement I also guarantee that the digital and print versions are identical.

In Zagreb, _____

Mentor's signature:

Student's signature: