

According to The Scientific Activity and Higher Education Act, Section 83 (12.) ,(NN 123/03, 198/03, 105/04, 174/04, 02/07, 46/07, 45/09, 63/11, 94/13, 139/13, 101/14), Regulations on Doctoral Studies at the University of Zagreb, Sections 20 and The Rules of postgraduate studies at FAMENA, Section. 62. your full text of the PhD thesis/ Specialist Thesis should be published at the FAMENA repository and University of Zagreb repository. In some circumstances, with an explanation of the Office for Doctoral Studies and Programmes University of Zagreb, the publishing of the thesis on the FAMENA and University web pages can be postponed for up to two years. In that case an acknowledgment note from the Technology Transfer Office needs to be attached to this statement.

Candidate's name and surname: _____

Please check the appropriate box:

The ○PhD thesis /○specialist thesis in its entirety should be published on the web pages of the FAMENA and University of Zagreb no later than a month following the defence.

If the research results of the ○PhD thesis/○specialist thesis include an innovation suitable for protection by intellectual property rights, with a previous explanation submitted to the Office for Doctoral Studies and Programmes University of Zagreb, the publishing on the FAMENA and University web pages can be postponed for up to two years. In this case an acknowledgment note from the Technology Transfer Office needs to be attached to this statement. The thesis can be published on the following date:

With this statement I also guarantee that the digital and print versions are identical.

In Zagreb, _____

Candidate's signature: