Igorova promišljanja (51) – Igor’s Reflections, Summary in English

Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture, and Brodarski Institute

On September 15th 2016 was celebrated 60th anniversary of the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture, University of Zagreb, as one of the offspring of the original Technical Faculty, founded in 1919. The occasion also served to exhibit life portraits of meritorious professors: Stjepan Timoshenko, Leopold Sorta, Fran Bošnjaković, Davorin Bazjanac and Aleksandar Đurašević.

The Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and Naval Architecture, University of Zagreb, nowadays has reached a growth comprising also the study of aeronautics; altogether including: 13 departments, 40 chairs and 45 laboratories; 2200 students and a total of 416 professors, assistants and other employees.

Author of these Reflections also paid a visit to Brodarski Institute (Institute for Ship Hydrodynamics), situated in the south site of Zagreb, on the right side of the river Sava, and is strongly pleading for a solidarity and common support of the shipbuilding and marine community to maintain and enable further prosperity of the Institute.